

1. Against Rabies using an anti-rabies vaccine conforming to the potency standard given by the World Health Organization (WHO), not less than thirty (30) days and not more than ten (10) months immediately prior to embarkation; In case of kittens under the age of ten (10) months, booster vaccine must be given within 14 days interval from the 1st vaccine

2. The cat has to be vaccinated using recognized vaccines against Feline Rhinotracheitis, Feline Calci virus and Feline Panleukopenia viruses (TRICAT), not less than thirty (30) days and not more than ten (10) months immediately prior to embarkation; In case of kittens under the age of six (06) months, booster vaccine must be given within 14 days interval from the 1st vaccine